A group of approximately 15-20 women are seated in a room with light-colored brick walls. They are arranged in several rows, facing towards the right side of the frame. The women are dressed in a variety of traditional and modern clothing, including patterned dresses, headscarves, and shawls. Some are looking directly at the camera, while others are looking slightly away. The room has large windows with white frames and a decorative metal grille above them. The floor is made of light-colored concrete or stone tiles. The overall atmosphere is calm and organized.
